

As our country navigates through the challenges of COVID-19, Classic Property Management is committed to providing support to our team members, clients and communities across the Dallas/Fort-Worth area during these uncertain times. Our top priority is the health and well-being our team members and clients. We will continue to follow the guidelines of the Center for Disease Control (CDC) and other local governmental agencies and make the necessary and appropriate decisions for the safety of all.

As the situation continues to evolve rapidly, Classic Property Management has adjusted to create best practices and guidance to fit our community needs. As always, we want to assure you that we are dedicated to serving all our communities.

Our leadership team has encouraged social distancing and implemented remote working capabilities. Our team members are the heart of our business and we are doing everything possible to support them through this time, while allowing them to continue working to deliver the highest level of service to our communities.

Our hearts go out to those who have been impacted by this COVID-19 global pandemic. We are grateful for all the healthcare workers, local communities and government around the country who are working to contain COVID-19. It's times like these, that build stronger communities and we would like to thank you for doing your part to stay safe and healthy.

Thank you for your continued loyalty, patience and understanding. We are here with you and will continue to do all we can to serve you, our team members and our community.
